

Venerable Kong Hai

Chinese Buddhism - Mahayana (Taiwan)

Venerable Kong Hai is the chief abbot of Pei Thou Loong Yin Buddhist Temple in Taiwan. He is also a qualified Chinese physician.

Born in 1955, he had undertaken extensive studies of religions, philosophies, psychology and modern astrophysics. He supplements his knowledge with extensive meditation practices including those in forest monasteries in Thailand, South Korea and Japan.

Venerable's ideal and objective is to combine the strength of the Theravada and Mahayana Traditions to enable us to understand and realize the reality of life, purify their mind and develop wisdom.

He has been invited for talks in US, Canada, China, Singapore & Malaysia.