

Luang Por Jumnie Seelasetho

Theravada - Thai

Luang Por Jumnie is a delightfully happy, wise and witty Thai forest monk. Trained in intensive meditation with Ajahn Dhammadaro, he also traveled as a wandering ascetic and mastered a diverse array of concentration meditations. No matter what the technique, he constantly urges us back into seeing our true nature.

Your first impression of Luang Por will be one of contradiction. Beneath his obvious loads of amulets is an unseen deep and still forest pool. Join us to savor this still forest pool.

He has taught in many Buddhist societies in Malaysia and Singapore apart from his invitation to teach in the West.
