

Bro Hor Kwei Loon has been sharing the Dhamma for the last 28 years including in various Buddhist organizations and Buddhist societies in colleges and universities. He have also conducted training in the area of personal development and organizational development for Buddhist entities.

Bro Hor Kwei Loon is also actively involved in universal healing practices and combines practice from different energy healing approach and also favors holistic dietary and lifestyle practices.

Currently, he offers consultation services in various areas such as living and health as well as personal wealth management and is attached to SKI Wealth.